The Altar Servers are an important part of our parish community and by their service and dedication enrich the worship and prayer life of this community. Because the role of the altar server is an important one it requires a real, personal commitment. Please read the expectations listed below and if you feel you wish to fulfill these expectations sign below as an indication of your commitment.

1. All servers are expected to be at church 10 minutes before the posted time of Mass.
2. All servers are to report in to the priest or deacon to see if anything needs to be done to complete preparations for Mass.
3. All servers are expected to fulfill their appointed times to serve.
4. All servers are expected to find their own replacements should they be unable to fulfill their assignment for whatever reason.
5. All servers are expected to hang up their cassocks and surplices after Mass.
6. All servers are expected to pay attention to the ceremonies of the Mass.
7. All servers are expected to know and say the responses during Mass.
8. All servers are expected to serve weddings and funerals when asked and able.

Yes, I.....agree.
